Reason for allowance

1. This communication is in response to applicant's 12/02/2005 Amendment in the application of Shen et al. for the "Communicating multi-part messages Mbetween cellular devices using a standardized interface" filed 09/26/2001. The proposed amendment to the claims and response have been entered and made of record. Claims 1, 17, 20, 25, 26, 28 and 32 have been amended, and new claims 37-38 have been added. The claims have been amended to better point out and more distinctly claim subject matter comprising the invention.

2 The claim rejection of record with respect to claims under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph are hereby removed based on applicant's amendment.

3. Claims 1-38 are allowable as evident by applicant's amendment.

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The instant application is deemed to be directed to a no obvious improvement over the prior art of record. The improvement comprises the feature wherein the calling application is adapted to act as a receiving application for a second message reassembled from a second set of short message fragments; wherein comprising the following: an act of receiving a request for a delivery report for the message from the calling application; an act of gathering delivery reports received back from the communication network for each short message fragment; an act of interpreting the gathered delivery reports for each of the short message fragments to determine an appropriate delivery response for the message as a whole; and an act of returning the appropriate delivery response for the message as a whole to the calling application, as specifically recited in the claims.

5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
